TRANSCEND SECURITY SCORES BIG ON PHOENIX BUSINESS JOURNAL'S 2016-2017 BOOK OF LISTS

The Phoenix Business Journal is the leading source of comprehensive local business news for the Greater Phoenix area. And each year, the Business Journal releases its Book of List's, Phoenix's essential business playbook which highlights the best and brightest companies in the area.

Transcend Security's continued growth contributed to the contract security firm being ranked as one of Greater Phoenix's largest Security Guard Firms for 2016-2017. This tremendous growth rate (after less than three years in business), is highlighted in the Phoenix Business Journal's Book of Lists. This is the first year Transcend has been recognized in the Journal's Book of Lists; and this is the highest ranking for a company that has not before been recognized prior to this year.

"We are extremely excited about the recognition Transcend Security has received from the Business Journal," said Executive Vice President and Co-Founder, Shawn Crane. "We take very seriously the security services that we provide to our clientele, and have worked extremely hard to cultivate a culture of excellence; and this is evidenced by the substantial increase in our number of employees, projects, clients, and service offerings over the past year. We look forward to continuing these efforts over the course of 2017 and beyond."

Transcend Security has had noteworthy success since its inception, not just in growth, but in recognition as well. This latest recognition adds to the list of honors that Transcend has received; honors that include Best of Scottsdale for Business Services, Best of Scottsdale for Security Services, Arizona Big Media's Ranking Arizona lists of the best companies to do business with in Arizona, among others.
